

THE HOLY GOSPEL (Mt. 5:20-26)

First Week of LENT

The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew,

Jesus said to his disciples, "I tell you, unless your righteousness surpasses that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

You have heard that it was not said to your ancestors, 'You shall not kill; and whoever kills will be liable to judgment.' But I say to you, whoever is angry with his brother will be liable to judgment, and whoever says to his brother, "Raqa," will be answerable to the Sanhedrin, and whoever says, "you fool," will be liable to fiery Gehenna. Therefore, if you bring your gift to the altar, and there recall that your brother has anything against you, leave your gift there at the altar, go first and be reconciled with your brother, and then come and offer your gift. Settle with your opponent quickly while on the way to court with him. Otherwise your opponent will hand you over to the judge, and will hand you over to the guard, and you will be prison. Amen, I say to you, you will not be released until you have paid the last penny."

Reflection:

Witnessing is the greatest way to maintain Christian virtues. It is easy to become Christians in words, but striving to be faithful in the teachings of Jesus is a great endeavor. Our gospel for today invites us to transcend ourselves to become a descent person. It was that we have to treat others as brothers and sisters in the name of Christ with love and not in hatred.

Prayer: Let us pray ... Lord Jesus, lead us to love and remove anger in our hearts to forgive those who sinned against us. Guide our thoughts and actions through your Holy Will. AMEN...

St. John Baptist de La Salle.....Pray for us!

Live Jesus in our hearts..... Forever!

MISSION VISION

"To be a sign of faith as an excellent educational institution, sharing in the Lasallian mission of teaching minds, touching hearts and transforming lives."

Depriving Ourselves of Something Good

Before Vatican II, Catholics were required to abstain from meat every Friday, as a form of penance in honor of the death of Jesus Christ on the Cross on Good Friday. Since Catholics are normally allowed to eat meat, this prohibition is very different from the dietary laws of the Old Testament or of other religions.

FROM THE OVCAD – INSTITUTIONAL HEALTH SERVICES:

Continuation... Oral Health Month: A window to your overall health

Step 7: Examine your mouth regularly.

Even if you visit your dentist regularly, you are in the best position to notice changes in your mouth. Your dentist and dental hygienist see you only a few times a year, but you can examine your mouth weekly to look for changes that might be of concern. Changes in your mouth that you should look for include:

- Swollen gums
- Chipped teeth
- Discolored teeth
- Sores or lesions on your gums, cheeks or tongue

A regular examination is particularly important for tobacco users, who are at increased risk of developing oral cancer. If you smoke or use smokeless tobacco, your dentist or dental hygienist can show you where a sore, spot, patch or lump is most likely to appear.

Step 8: Visit the dental office regularly.

Talk to your dentist about how often you should visit. If you have a history of cavities or crown and bridge work, or are wearing braces, you should visit the dentist more often. Some people, such as diabetics or smokers, have more gum disease than the general population. They also should visit the dentist more often. People with suppressed immune systems also are more likely to have dental problems. Examples include people who are infected with HIV or are receiving cancer treatment. More frequent visits for these groups are important to maintain good oral health.
