

GOD’S WORDS FOR TODAY (Lk. 10:1-12)

The Holy Gospel according to St. Luke

After this the Lord appointed seventy others, and sent them on ahead of him, two by two, into every town and place where he himself was about to come. And he said to them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; pray therefore the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest. Go your way; behold, I send you out as lambs in the midst of wolves. Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; and salute no one on the road. Whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace be to this house!' And if a son of peace is there, your peace shall rest upon him; but if not, it shall return to you. And remain in the same house, eating and drinking what they provide, for the laborer deserves his wages; do not go from house to house. Whenever you enter a town and they receive you, eat what is set before you; heal the sick in it and say to them, 'The kingdom of God has come near to you.' But whenever you enter a town and they do not receive you, go into its streets and say, 'Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet, we wipe off against you; nevertheless know this that the kingdom of God has come near.' I tell you, it shall be more tolerable on that day for Sodom than for that town.

REFLECTION:

What kind of harvest does the Lord want us to reap today for his kingdom? When Jesus commissioned seventy of his disciples to go on mission, he gave them a vision of a vast field that is ready to be harvested for the kingdom of God. Jesus frequently used the image of a harvest to convey the coming of God's reign on earth. The harvest is the fruition of much labor and growth beginning with the sowing of seeds, then growth to maturity, and finally the reaping of fruit for the harvest.

PRAYER:

Lord Jesus, may the joy and truth of the Gospel transform my life that I may witness it to those around me. Amen.

MISSION VISION

“Inspired by our faith in God, by our Catholic traditions and by the charism of St. John Baptist de La Salle educational innovator par excellence, we together and by association are committed to give quality human and Christian education to all building a society founded on equity and justice and on sustainable and inclusive development.”

FROM THE OVCAR – OFFICE OF THE INTEGRATED SCHOOL PRINCIPAL:

- As we join the whole world in celebrating Teachers’ Day today, we thank all our Lasallian Partners for continuously partaking in the Lasallian mission of teaching minds, touching hearts and transforming lives. Thus, in the spirit of gratitude and appreciation, we wish you all a Happy and Blessed Teachers’ Day May God shower you and your respective families abundant blessings so that you may always resemble and follow Jesus Christ, the Greatest Teacher as you serve the students entrusted to your care.
- Our 1st Quarterly Assessment is scheduled next week. Kindly refer to the entries of your respective APs for the specific details. Meanwhile, students are advised to settle their accounts before the first quarter assessment. Students with payment done before October 2 can secure their permit from their homeroom advisers. TEN REASONS TO PRAY THE ROSARY

FR. ED BROOM, O.M.V.

5. The Rosary can lift us to the heights!

The Rosary is indeed a marvelous prayer that can lift us to the heights of holiness if prayed well and with perseverance. This prayer is vocal in that we vocalize the beautiful prayers, the Our Father and Hail Mary. Then it is a meditative prayer in that we reflect upon the meaning of the mysteries and how they can be applied to our own lives right now. Furthermore, it is a contemplative prayer, meaning that we are summoned to enter into the scenes or mysteries of the life of Jesus and Mary.

<https://catholicexchange.com/ten-reasons-pray-rosary-3>

Advisers & Subject Teachers: Kindly invite the students to vocalize the prayers and not just to listen to the prayers over the P.A.

Recollection Schedule:

From the JHS Social Studies Department

The Social Studies, together with the English and CLCE Departments start its celebration with the theme, “Mary as Mediator in Promoting Peace and Sustainability through Effective Communication.”

Did you know that...According to the United Nations Development Program, “High levels of armed violence and insecurity have a destructive impact on a country’s development, affecting economic growth and often resulting in long standing grievances that can last for generations. Sexual violence, crime, exploitation and torture are also prevalent where there is conflict or no rule of law, and countries must take measures to protect those who are most at risk.

The SDGs aim to significantly reduce all forms of violence, and work with governments and communities to find lasting solutions to conflict and insecurity. Strengthening the rule of law and promoting human rights is key to this process, as is reducing the flow of illicit arms and strengthening the participation of developing countries in the institutions of global governance.”

ATTENTION AMEP Participants!!!

Congratulations for your active participation during our SESSION 1 and SESSION 2. Continue your diligence and eagerness to enhance your mathematical skills. Keep up the good work!

For us to have a smoother operation in the next sessions, please be guided by the following:

1. BRING SNACKS during the training because all canteens in the campus are closed during weekends. ALL students are not allowed to leave the campus during recess. This is for STRICT COMPLIANCE.
2. Those who will be brought by their parents to school with vehicles are advised to drop by at the GS BB BUILDING. All vehicles should exit the SIDE GATE. This means that NO STUDENT shall enter the College or HLS Lobby. However, those who do not have vehicle shall use the SIDE GATE as the ENTRANCE gate. These are for SECURITY purposes.
3. Please wear your AMEP t-shirt with ID before entering the DLSL campus.
4. Bring a notebook and pen during training sessions.

Thank you very much for your cooperation. God bless, AMEP Mathletes!!!

What is effective communication?

Effective communication is about more than just exchanging information. It's about understanding the emotion and intentions behind the information. As well as being able to clearly convey a message, you need to also listen in a way that gains the full meaning of what's being said and makes the other person feel heard and understood.

More than just the words you use, effective communication combines a set of 4 skills:

Engaged listening

Nonverbal communication

Managing stress in the moment

Asserting yourself in a respectful way
