

GOD'S WORDS FOR TODAY (Mt. 11:11-15)

The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew

Truly, I say to you, among those born of women there has risen no one greater than John the Baptist; yet he who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. From the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven has suffered violence, and men of violence take it by force. For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John; and if you are willing to accept it, he is Elijah who is to come. He who has ears to hear, let him hear.

Reflection:

Who is the greatest in the kingdom of God? Jesus praised John the Baptist as the greatest person born. Who can top that as a compliment? But in the same breath Jesus says that the least in the kingdom of God is even greater than John! That sounds like a contradiction, right? Unless you understand that what Jesus was about to accomplish for our sake would supersede all that the prophets had done and foreseen.

Prayer:

Lord Jesus, fill me with joy and confidence and make me a bold witness of your saving truth that others may know the joy and freedom of the Gospel of your kingdom of peace and righteousness. Amen.

MISSION VISION

“Inspired by our faith in God, by our Catholic traditions and by the charism of St. John Baptist de La Salle educational innovator par excellence, we together and by association are committed to give quality human and Christian education to all building a society founded on equity and justice and on sustainable and inclusive development. .”

FROM THE OVCAR – OFFICE OF THE INTEGRATED SCHOOL PRINCIPAL:

1. Have a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to all Lasallian Partners, students and to all! As we celebrate this yuletide season, may we never forget the true meaning of Christmas. Put Jesus Christ, our model for humility and simplicity in the center of the celebration. This is also an opportune time to thank the Lord for all the blessings we receive no matter how small or big they are!
2. This day is the last regular school day for this year 2017. We will go on a break for the meantime. Enjoy the holidays with your family, friends and loved ones. Stay safe and see you again on Jan. 8, 2018.
