

GOD’S WORDS FOR TODAY (Mt. 11:16-19)

The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew

"But to what shall I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the market places and calling to their playmates, 'We piped to you, and you did not dance; we wailed, and you did not mourn.' For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, 'He has a demon'; the Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, 'Behold, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' Yet wisdom is justified by her deeds."

REFLECTION:

Jesus parable about a group of disappointed musicians and their stubborn friends who refuse to sing or dance at the appropriate occasion challenge us to examine whether we are selective to only hear and do what we want to hear. The young music players in Jesus' parable react with great dismay because they cannot get anyone to follow their instruction. They complain that if they play their music at weddings, no one will join in their festive song and dance; and if they play mournful tunes and songs at funerals, no one will join in at all. This parable echoes the wisdom of Ecclesiastes 3:4 - "there is a time to weep and a time to laugh; a time to mourn and a time to dance." Are you in tune with the message of God's kingdom? And do you heed God's word of wisdom and truth as if your life depended on it?

PRAYER:

Lord Jesus, open my ears to hear the good news of your kingdom and set my heart free to love and serve you joyfully. Amen.

MISSION VISION

"Inspired by our faith in God, by our Catholic traditions and by the charism of St. John Baptist de La Salle educational innovator par excellence, we together and by association are committed to give quality human and Christian education to all building a society founded on equity and justice and on sustainable and inclusive development."

FROM THE OVCAR – OFFICE OF THE INTEGRATED SCHOOL PRINCIPAL:

- As we celebrate the Advent season, we are invited to reflect on the events that have taken place and affected us and our community. Likewise, we are called to interpret, judge, and evaluate everything in the light of the Gospel. Fortunately, the Gospel readings tell us to take courage and continue to hope for we have a living God who actively supports us. All we have to do is to live a life that is pleasing to God. Challenging as it is, the Gospel inspires us to cast away sorrow and with Jesus Christ, courageously continue partaking in the salvific mission of the Church.
 With so much hope and love, we wish everyone a meaningful Advent season, a blessed Christmas and a wonderful New Year! May God bless each one of us and respective families abundantly!
