

GOD’S WORDS FOR TODAY (Mt. 21:33-46)

The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew

"Hear another parable. There was a householder who planted a vineyard, and set a hedge around it, and dug a wine press in it, and built a tower, and let it out to tenants, and went into another country. When the season of fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the tenants, to get his fruit; and the tenants took his servants and beat one, killed another, and stoned another. Again he sent other servants, more than the first; and they did the same to them. Afterward he sent his son to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.' But when the tenants saw the son, they said to themselves, 'This is the heir; come, let us kill him and have his inheritance.' And they took him and cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. When therefore the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?" They said to him, "He will put those wretches to a miserable death, and let out the vineyard to other tenants who will give him the fruits in their seasons."

Jesus said to them, "Have you never read in the scriptures: 'The very stone which the builders rejected has become the head of the corner; this was the Lord's doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes'? Therefore, I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a nation producing the fruits of it." When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they perceived that he was speaking about them. But when they tried to arrest him, they feared the multitudes, because they held him to be a prophet.

REFLECTION:

This parable speaks to us today as well. It richly conveys some important truths about God and the way he deals with his people. First, it tells us of God's generosity and trust. The vineyard is well equipped with everything the tenants need. The owner went away and left the vineyard in the hands of the tenants. God, likewise trusts us enough to give us freedom to run life as we choose. This parable also tells us of God's patience and justice. Not once, but many times he forgives the tenants their debts. But while the tenants take advantage of the owner's patience, his judgment and justice prevail in the end.

PRAYER:

Lord Jesus, may I always wish others well, and pray for them instead of taking revenge on them when they hurt me. Amen.

Cont...Fire Safety and Prevention Tips To Keep In Mind

What to do when a fire breaks out?

A well-rehearsed emergency exit plan greatly alleviates panic during an outbreak of fire. It takes two minutes for your house to be filled with toxic fumes from a fire.

- Try to close the door of the burning area to deter the spread of fire and smoke.
- Hot air and smoke rise up so it's best to stay low for better breathing. Wet a piece of cloth to cover your mouth and crawl to the exit.
- If your clothes catch fire: Stop, Drop, and Roll.
- Get everyone out first and think about material possession last.
- Do not rush back into a burning building even after flames have been put out as debris are still falling and collapsing.
- Pull the fire alarm on your way to emergency exits
- Evacuate to designated assembly area

What do I do if I'm trapped in a fire?

The Bureau of Fire Protection recommends the following tips:

- Go to a room with windows leading outdoors.
- Shout for help or wave a cloth outside the window to alert people.
- Close the doors and patch gaps to stop smoke from spreading in.
- Try to collect bedsheets and mattresses to help you escape through the window if trapped in the upper floor.
